BANQUET

/ban-quet/

noun

1. an elaborate formal or informal evening meal for many people.

ask about our new group banquet options!

sharing good food and wine with friends is one of life's many joys. In many countries this is done by putting a variety of dishes in the middle of the table for all to try a little of this and that to experience and enjoy the variety of flavours.

Together with beverages and great conversation.

lans Western Hotel is pleased to offer this type of shared experience with our new banquet style menu option for groups of 15 or more.
